

Gender Pay Gap Report 2025

Gino's Italian Ice Cream Ltd

Crafting Italian Gelato with
Irish Pride Since 2008

Introduction to us !

Inspired by their past Jonathan Kirwan and Anthony Murphy sons of Ice Cream makers joined forces over their shared passion & family history for crafting the best local desserts the duo set out to create Ireland's best ice cream. Travelling the world in search of the best sweet treats & dessert options they were stopped in their tracks in Italy uncovering the magic of gelato in its homeland.

The duo returned blending the finest traditional Italian gelato techniques with pure organic Irish milk, creating a gelato experience like no other – and so Gino's Gelato was born in 2008.

As a business in the Irish retail market, Gino's Italian Ice cream Ltd. remains committed to transparency and equality in our workplace. In alignment with the Gender Pay Gap Information Act 2021 and subsequent amendments we are proud to share our gender pay gap report for 2025.

This report highlights our ongoing efforts to foster a balanced, inclusive environment where all employees can thrive. By meeting and exceeding regulatory reporting requirements we reaffirm our dedication to equitable remuneration and well-being across our company.

What is the Gender Pay Gap Report?

To start off, it's important to acknowledge that Equal Pay and the Gender Pay Gap are two separate things.
